Objections

Up to and including 6 weeks after publication, the interested party may object to their removal from the registration. In your notice of objection you must at least state: your name and address, the date on which you filed the notice of objection, a description of the decision against which you are objecting and the reasons why you object. You must sign the notice of objection. You can address the notice of objection to the Executive Council of St. Eustatius.

A removal from the registration of the basic administration may result in the above mentioned person being unable to request documents (travel documents, driving license and ID Card). It can also have consequences for any allowances or benefits. In addition, it can have consequences for the Old age pension. It is important to be registered at the correct address.

We therefore ask everyone who is aware of the current address of the above mentioned person to contact Census Office
